Metamorphosis

La materia come esperienza di trasformazione

In Metamorphosis, la superficie diventa linguaggio.

Muri, marmi, affreschi e metalli attraversano una condizione di mutazione continua, fondendosi in equilibri inediti tra naturale e artificiale.

Ogni rivestimento è una traccia di questo processo: la solidità del minerale incontra la leggerezza della luce, la profondità materica si riflette in velature perlate e sfumature metalliche. Non è una semplice collezione di carte da parati, ma un sistema di superfici in dialogo con l'architettura, dove ogni texture racconta la tensione progettuale tra memoria e contemporaneità. Un nuovo linguaggio visivo per spazi che non imitano, ma si trasformano.

Matter as an experience of transformation.

In Metamorphosis, the surface becomes a language.

Walls, marbles, frescoes, and metals enter a state of continuous mutation, merging into unprecedented balances between the natural and the artificial. Each covering is a trace of this process: the solidity of mineral matter meets the lightness of illumination, and material depth is reflected in pearly veils and metallic gradients. This is not a simple collection of wallpapers, but a system of surfaces in dialogue with architecture, where every texture conveys the design tension between memory and contemporaneity. A new visual language for spaces that do not imitate, but transform.
